What's new:

Age Stage 1 - PvP Neon Abyss - PVP Stage 1 We're in it to win it! Specifically, we're in it to win that single match, which this stage is all about! Rather than setting odds that happen to favor one team over another, we decided to get out what we've got and try to take what we can away. Let's do this! Character allocation In order to keep things interesting, we decided to go balanced this time. Each member gets to select 1 of the 6 characters that are available in the entire game. Every player gets an equal share of stats and skills, but one player can not have more than one of any character (for obvious reasons). First up is K-Wing Grogan. She's a toss-up, hard for you to play unless you have a fair amount of PVE experience. She can do well in PVP if you force the tempo while keeping the leader alive and fielding an effective number of units. Next up, we have Superknight Demir. If you're looking for a crew that can pounce on the enemy and turn the tables when they least expect it, Demir is one of your best bets. As much as you may not expect combat, you'll be hard-pressed to find a better debuffer in the game. And finally, there's Korath the Slaver! He can be strong in PVP if you can fuel the Gage hard enough, but that's easier said than done. For one, Korath requires rations to do well in combat; food for thought as you plan to use him in a PVP/PVE hybrid gatcha! Satsuma Kai We've got a bit of a restricted meta for this round, so it's time for you to start playing. I'll be using 2 characters during the round: Satsuma Kai (7pts) K-Wing Grogan (14pts) The Geno collection plan Your general crew will come in 3 flavors: Beast, Knuckle, Blast. Each gets 1 or 2 Siege Beasts, a Knocker, a Heatseeker, and a Commander. All in all, your collection should look like this: (Beast, Beast, Beast)
