McDowell Street Seasideville Plans: DPW takes the plan under consideration By Emma Alder June 5, 2017 at 4:58 PM Contact Options Seasideville, NJ: The McDowell Street Seasideville Plans plan to create a community park between Seasideville and Hawthorne Avenues in Seasideville was under review as of press time. Dan Zim, a member of the Department of Public Works who serves the Seasideville area, confirmed that the Department of Public Works is looking into the proposal. "We are looking into it, and as far as where we are at right now with the plans, I can't confirm or deny anything," said Zim. "Right now, the plan is just pending approval." Seasideville resident Dan Hill, who is the president of the Seasideville Neighborhood Association, said he wants to be sure people know that there is an open house scheduled for June 7 from 2:30 to 6:30 p.m. in front of the Danco Plaster on North Seasideville Avenue. "We are hoping to hear from the community as we can use what they think and give us any ideas on the process that we are going through," he said. He said people can come to the open house and
