F.3d 1210, 1214 (9th Cir. 2001) ("Claims against a government agent are likewise exempt from the FTCA's exhaustion 4 requirement."). Thus, the exhaustion requirement of § 2675(a) does not apply because this action is against the United States and not against a federal employee. IV We hold that the magistrate judge lacked jurisdiction to hear the case and reverse. REVERSED. 5 Q; unable to connect MySql using pure java I am creating an android app where data is entered by the user. The data will be taken from the database to display on the UI. I am new to this so I know I am doing something wrong. I have created the database in MySQL using MySQL Workbench. Here is my code where db is the database name and user is the username and password is the password. I have successfully connected to the database using SQL Workbench but not through the java code. I am getting no connection but when I connect using SQL Workbench it works
